

Greater Gallatin Watershed Council
Public Forum & Annual Meeting
January 25, 2007—Belgrade Senior Center
Agenda

6:30 p.m.

- Introductions (Jody)
- A Celebration of 2006 Successes—Photo Essay (Jody)

6:50 p.m.—Water Quality Public Forum

- Overview of Impaired Streams & DEQ/GGWC Process (Pete Schade)—20 minutes
- Introduction of Panel (Jody)—5 minutes (Panel includes Pete)
- Water Quality Planning on the Blackfoot (Tina Bernd-Cohen)—15 minutes
- Urban Influence: Bozeman's Stormwater Plan (Dustin Johnson)—15 minutes
- Panel Q&A from audience (facilitator: Jody)

8:30 p.m.—GGWC Annual Meeting

- Approval of minutes
- Treasurer's annual report for 2006
- Amendments to GGWC bylaws
- Election of new Board of Director members

9:30 p.m.—Adjourn

The Greater Gallatin Watershed Council is a locally-led non-profit organization bringing together sound science and citizen involvement to create a forum for community-based problem-solving and action within our home watershed.